Now comes William Bleckman and presents himself for NATURALIZATION, and shows to the Court by satisfactory evidence that he was born in Germany; that his age is 50 years; that he emigrated to the United States in the year 1846 at the age of 6, and declares on oath that it has been his bona-fide intention to become a citizen of the United States for more than two years last past, and also proves by the oaths of William Pethe and Christian Koll that he has resided within the United States five years at least, and in the State of Indiana one year at least last past; and that during that time and for more than two years last past it has been his bona-fide intention to become a citizen of the United States; and that during all of the time aforesaid he has behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

And, thereupon, the said William Bleckman makes oath in open Court that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he absolutely and entirely renounces and abjures all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty; and particularly to Emperor of Germany.
It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said William Bleckman be, and he is hereby admitted as a citizen of the United States.
