Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star, ~
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell, ~
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar...

To Those I Love and Those who Love Me:

When I am gone, release me, let me go. -
I have so many things to see and do.
You musn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be thankful for our beautiful years.

I gave to you my love, You can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and say-"Welcome Home!"

AREA DEATHS 2004

Francis Barton

Former Warrick County resident Francis Walter Barton died Saturday, Aug. 21 in Florida. He was 90.

Francis was born near Boonville on Jan. 31, 1914. At the age of 5 he began to draw and because farm work had to come first, he would sketch at night by the light of a coal oil lamp. He graduated from Boonville High School and studied art by correspondence course. He has shared with his family that when he was 11 years old, he knelt beside his mother and accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. Since that time, his goal was to make his life pleasing to God and other people.

Barton

At the age of 22 he married the love of his life, Ruby Macel Tuley. They had two daughters, Joyce Ann and Linda Ruth and then he was off to World War II. One incident he is remembered for is this: One day his commander asked him to give haircuts to all the men in his outfit and by the time he was finished it was very late. The next morning his commander led his troops down the Ruhr River on a routine mission. He let Francis sleep since he had worked so late according to his orders. Francis awoke to gunfire and realized his company was gone. He knew he would not be able to reach them in time to help so he knelt beside his cot and prayed for them until they returned. Not one man in his company was killed or wounded. Down the river, another American company was on a similar mission and several men in that company were killed and wounded. Francis had the weapon of prayer!

After he came home from the war, he and Ruby had one son, Michael Francis. He then went to Barber School in Indianapolis and worked at that trade for 50 years, first in Boonville and then in Evansville. During those years he began to do oil painting and studied at Evansville College. In his later years in Boonville, he and Ruby took his paintings to various art shows where he was the artist and she was his saleslady. They made a grand combination. He also conducted many local art classes.

Approximately 10 years ago they moved to Florida, to be near their son Mike, where he continued to paint even though he was struggling with Parkinson's disease. In June, his Parkinson's finally became his master. As he lay in the hospital and nursing home, barely able to talk, he was still trying to tell his jokes and was an inspiration to all who came in contact with him.

Francis' life verse was "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." He often remarked that God had blessed his family with many pastors, missionaries and Christian workers. Many of them were present at the funeral, including his children and grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife, Ruby of Lakeland, Fla.; two daughters and sons-in-law, Joyce (Barton) and Merrell Wheeler, retired missionaries, and Linda (Barton) and Ernie Henson, pastor/missionaries; a son, Mike Barton, Christian musician/worship leader; six grandchildren, Tim Wheeler, pastor, Angie (Henson) and George Aja, pastor, Ami (Henson) and Paul Fernbaugh, Christian laymen, Mindi (Barton) and Dave Bell, children's church directors, Brad Barton, Christian layman, and Cindy (Wheeler) and Craig Cox, Christian laymen in an international church in Tokyo; 13 grandchildren, three of whom are enrolled in Christian colleges; and two nephews who are pastors.

A military funeral was conducted at the gravesite by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, including a 21-gun-salute. Francis will be remembered as a true Christian man, a lover of family and friends and a lifelong Patriot.

He served on the Selective Service Board as well as serving in the U.S. Navy teaching electronics during World War II. After the war, he returned home to resume his involvement in the grocery business. After his father's retirement, Edgar successfully operated Baum's Key Market until his retirement.

"Bummer" was always a staunch supporter of Boonville athletics joining John Greer in coaching little league football and faithfully attending BHS football games until health issues prohibited his attendance at which time he tuned in to WBNL to hear the action. He was honored at the celebration of 100 years of Boonville Football for both his achievements as a player as well as his support of the team. Honored for prowess as a football star, he was inducted into the Indiana Football Hall of Fame in 1992 and was also inducted into the Oakland City University Hall of Fame.

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar...

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth
me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Twenty Third Psalm

*THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES:
HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: HE LEADETH ME IN THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE..
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF
THE SHADOW OF DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVIL:
FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME. THOU PREPAREST A TABLE
BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL; MY CUP
RUNNETH OVER.. SURELY GOODNESS AND
MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD FOR EVER.....*
