

Raymond Farley

Chandler resident Raymond Farley died Monday, Sept. 20, at 9:30 p.m. at St. Mary's Warrick Hospital in Boonville. He was 88.

He had been a member of the Chandler Cumberland Presbyterian Church for 47 years. He had worked at Servel and retired from Arkla after 43 ears.

He farmed in Warrick County over 50 years.

He was a charter member of Warrick County #2984 AARP, a member of the Arkla Retiree Club, a member of the Warrick County Farm Bureau, and a Triple A member for many years.

Five generations surrounded him at his death.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Lila Christian, in July, 1980.

Survivors include his wife of 71 years, Reva Farley of Chandler; a daughter, Norma Franz of Boonville; a son, Elmer Farley of Blue Ridge, Ga.; two brothers, Paul Farley of Las Vegas, Nev., and Joseph Richard Farley of Kansas City, Mo.; seven grandchildren, Stephen Franz, Sharon Brown, Cindy Blackford, Ronald Christian, Patrick Farley, Christopher Farley and Leslie Raub; 10 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Sept. 23, at the Chandler Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Rev. Don Sweet and Rev. Dan Gross officiated. Burial was in Maple Grove Cemetery in Boonville.

Koehler Funeral Home-Perigo Chapel handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church or American Cancer Society.

Reva E. Farley

CHANDLER — Reva E. Farley, 91, died Monday, Dec. 30, 2002, at her home in Chandler, Ind.

Reva was born in Johnson City, Ill., and raised in Sebree, Ky., then moved to Indiana after her marriage in 1928 to Raymond Farley.

Reva was a 50-year member of the Chandler Cumberland Presbyterian Church and a member of the Chandler Home Economics Club. Reva was cafeteria manager at Castle High School when the school opened in 1959.

Reva and her late husband farmed in the Chandler area, after their marriage until 1982. Reva was a newspaper correspondent with Chandler news for the Warrick Enquirer.

Reva was preceded in death by her husband, Raymond Farley, in 1999; and a daughter, Lila Christian, July 26, 1980; and two brothers and a sister preceded her in death.

Reva is survived by two children, Norma Franz of Boonville, Ind., and Elmer Raymond Farley of Blue Ridge, Ga.; seven grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services 11 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 2, at Chandler Cumberland Presbyterian Church, with Rev. Dan Gross officiating, and burial in Maple Grove Cemetery in Boonville, Ind.

Friends may call from 2 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Koehler Funeral Home Perigo Chapel, 7022 Heim Road in Chandler, Ind., and from 9 a.m. to service time Thursday at the Chandler Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Chandler Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Robert G. Ferguson Sr.

Robert Guy Ferguson Sr., age 83, of Newburgh, Indiana, passed away Sunday, November 17, 2002, at 12 p.m. The former owner and operator of Ferguson's Garage for 35 years in Evansville, Indiana, died with complications from Alzheimer's disease. Hendrickson's Motors in Boonville, Indiana, O'Daniel-Ranes in Evansville and Crane Depot in Odon, Indiana, were former employers prior to Robert forming his own auto repair business.

He was born December 23, 1918, in Dickyville, located in Warrick County, Indiana. He grew up on a farm on Heim Road in Chandler, Indiana, and attended Chandler High School, graduating in 1937. While in high school, he helped deliver the U.S. mail by horse and wagon for his grandfather, Levi Ellsworth Ferguson, postmaster for the Chandler Post Office. After high school, Robert graduated in 1938 from Nashville Greatness is not found in possessions, power, position or prestige. It is discovered in service to God and to others, in truth, goodness, humility, character and the giving of love unconditionally. Robert was such a man.

Those who were lucky enough to know Robert "Bob" Guy Ferguson deem his friendship their good fortune. Although the list of Pearl and Bob Ferguson's benefactions is lengthy, those who knew Bob all say, "You will never know how many people he helped. He gave without desire for thanks."

He was a man big enough to admit his mistakes, smart enough to profit from them. He may have been counted out several times, but Bob Ferguson didn't hear the referee. He knew that God was in control of all things. The success in his life is not determined by accumulation, but by contributions.

Bob Ferguson was honorable, honest, fair, tolerant, charitable of others and a gentleman, which in itself is a success. He lived long, laughed often and loved much. He was a giant of a man.

Services will be held Tuesday, November 19, 2002, at 10 a.m., at Townsend Bible Church in Paradise, Indiana. Pastor Mike Ward will officiate.

Visiting hours are Monday, November 18, 2002, from 2 to 8

Auto Diesel College in Nashville, Tennessee. He returned to start his first automotive repair business in Newburgh, Indiana.

He married Pearl Reinhard on June 12, 1941, at Pearl's parents' home in Newburgh, Indiana. His daughter, LaVonne, was born in April 1942, just before he entered the U.S. Army in May 1942. He served in the motor pool, Fort Knox, Kentucky. He was honorably discharged in 1945. He then returned home to start once again his own automotive repair business.

It was time now for him to continue his education by completing courses at the Dale Carnegie Institute in 1946, the same year his son, Robert Jr, was born. He taught auto mechanics at night for Mechanic Arts School. He installed Sears & Roebuck's rebuilt engines until Sears built their new service center and relocated to Washington Square. He was ably assisted and worked closely with his wife, Pearl, and longtime friends, Stoy Hays and Glenn James. He also serviced Blue Bird Pie Company's fleet.

Robert was saved at a tent meeting very early in life and dearly loved serving his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He was a 60-year member of the Townsend Bible Church, formerly known as the Townsend Community Church in Paradise, Indiana. He served as deacon and chairman of the church board, senior youth leader, chairman of the pulpit committee and coach of the church baseball team. Robert was active for many years, serving Child Evangelism and the Rescue Mission in Evansville, Indiana.

After his retirement in 1983, Bob and Pearl spent many enjoyable years establishing new friendships at their winter retirement home in St. Petersburg, Florida, and at their farm in Selvin, Indiana.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Guy H. and Myrtle O. Ferguson; brothers, Ray and Golden Ferguson; and granddaughter, Rhonda Woodall.

Survivors include his beloved wife, Pearl (Reinhard) Ferguson; daughter and her husband, LaVonne and Henry Woodall; son and his wife, Robert G. and Cindi Ferguson; grandson and his wife, John H. and Amy Woodall; grandson, Wyatt Ferguson; granddaughters, Jenny Rabago, Kelley Marshall and Taylor Kirtrell; great-grandchildren, Justice Daulton and Aleya Paige Woodall; sister, Elizabeth McCullough Bass; brother, Charles Ferguson; and nieces and nephews.

Greatness is not found in pos-p.m. at Alexander Newburgh Chapel, 5333 State Road 261 in Newburgh, and from 9 to 10 a.m. at Townsend Bible Church in Paradise, prior to the service.

Memorials may be made to Townsend Bible Church, VNA, VNA Hospice or SWIRCA.

Georgia Fischer

Georgia C. Fischer, 93, of Evansville, died Sunday, Sept. 16, 2001, at Holiday Health Care.

She retired from Gallagher Oil after 30 years.

She was a member of Townsend Community Church in Paradise, Ind., and a quilter.

Surviving are a daughter, Nancy Schmitt of Evansville; three grandchildren, Julie Williams, Karen Neth and Kenneth Schmitt; and a great-grandson. Her husband, Albert, died in 1969.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at Alexander Funeral Home North Chapel, the Rev.

Mike B. Ward officiating, with burial in Townsley Cemetery in Mackey, Ind.

Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to Townsend Community Church or the Alzheimer's Association.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar...

Mary Elizabeth Fleeger

CHANDLER — Mary Elizabeth Fleeger, 91, passed away peacefully on Wednesday afternoon, June 21, 2006, at Woodlands Convalescent Care in Newburgh.

Born on November 18, 1914, Mary grew up in Chandler with her parents, Ira and Elizabeth Lockhart, and her sister, Florence. She graduated as valedictorian from Chandler High School and later married George G. Fleeger of Evansville in 1941.

Living in the same home she grew up in, she and George took great joy in farming, gardening and caring for their family. Mary and George faithfully attended Townsend Community Church (now Townsend Bible Church) in Paradise, where they served as Youth Leaders, Sunday School Teachers and worked in Vacation Bible School and, Mary, in the Ladies Aid.

Mary worked at Thorton Home and helped in the World War II efforts in Evansville, but spent most of her years as a homemaker. She and George helped raise their nephew, Gary Jones, when her sister passed away in 1936. They welcomed the birth of their daughter, Rita Faye, in 1953.

When George passed away in 1987, Mary came to live with her daughter and son-in-law, Rita and Michael Rust, where she helped look after their children, Matthew and Andrea, as a caring grandmother.

For the next 13 years, she lovingly worried over and spoiled her grandchildren and helped her daughter with the household chores. Mary continued her involvement in her church, now with two younger generations of her family, and continued to find enjoyment in reading her Bible and working word puzzles.

She suffered a stroke in 2000 that left her partially paralyzed. She moved to Woodlands Convalescent Care in Newburgh, where their staff carefully and lovingly looked after her.

Mary's family takes great comfort in knowing that she is no longer in any pain and that she is rejoicing with family members who have gone before her into the presence of the Lord.

Mary was preceded in death by an infant son in 1951 and by her husband in 1987.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Rita and Michael Rust of Chandler; her grandson, Matthew Rust, and his wife, Victoria, of Carboro, N.C.; her granddaughter, Andrea Silva, and her husband, Adam, of Chandler; her nephew, Gary Jones, and his wife, Doloris, and their sons, Jeff and Jerry (and families), all of Ohio.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. on Monday, June 26, at Koehler's Funeral Home in Boonville, with burial in Maple Grove Cemetery. Visitation is from 2 to 8 p.m. Sunday and 9 a.m. to service at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to Townsend Bible Church.

Condolences and any special remembrance can be made online at www.koehlerfuneralhome.com.

"Boonville's First Meter Maid."

Miss Marjorie "Pete" Floyd, daughter of Mrs. Etta Floyd, 1011 North Third St., is Boon-ville's First Meter Maid. From her first day on the job, Pete has been busy tagging cars that were parked overtime.
From starting time at 11 a.m.
Friday until Monday at the same time she had given 225 tickets. With a few days education, however, more vacancies are showing up at the parking meters now. Below is a poem
"Ode To A Meter Maid." Written by Patty Skelton.

A meter maid has been hired by the city

The tickets she's writing!
Wow what a pity!

A pity for you and a pity for me,

Who once could park on the square for free.

She makes no exceptions
and I hear tell

That she ticketed the mayor of the city as well

The clerk of the county even got one

And I don't think she wrote it just for fun.

Is she a good idea or is she not?

That is the question that makes people hot,

Some get tickets and get fighting mad

Others that get them don't seem to be sad.

When they see Pete coming down the street

They hurry and scurry with fast running feet

The hustle and bustle is quite a novice

From my view out the window of the Enquirer office.

Pete was a member of Chapter #450 Order of Eastern Star in Boonville, V.F.W.
Post No. 3418 in Boonville, and St. Clements Catholic Church in Boonville, Ind.

Memorial graveside services will be 2 p.m. Saturday, July 19, 2008, at Maple Grove Cemetery in Boonville, Ind., with

In lieu of flowers, memorial

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow your love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is discord, union;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Gary Gordon Goad

Gary Gordon Goad

BOONVILLE, Ind. — Gary Gordon Goad, 70, of Ormond Beach, Fla., formerly of Boonville, Ind., went home

Sa to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, after a long courageous battle with cancer. Gary passed away at home with his loving family around him on July 6, 2008.

Koehler
Saturd

He was a graduate of Boonville High School class of 1955. He attended Evansville College (U of E) and received a BA in marketing/management in 1962. He was a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity. Gary went on to be a restaurant entrepreneur in the late 60s and 70s. He moved to Ormond Beach, Fla., in 1978, where he had three more family-owned restaurants. The most glorious time of his life however was when he was born again in Christ and was saved by the grace of God through the blood of Jesus Christ at the First Baptist Church of Ormond Beach where he served as a deacon until he was called to be a "messenger of Jesus Christ." Gary then attended the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in 1983 where he received a Master's of Divinity in 1986 and became an ordained Southern Baptist minister. Gary moved back to Ormond Beach where he served as pastor of three churches during 1987 through 2005. He retired from the ministry in February of 2005 due to his illness. Gary believed in the saving grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and touched so many lives by preaching the Word of God through the Holy Scriptures. His true desire in life was to win souls for Christ and to care for those in need which he did with great love and compassion.

Jack served in the Navy in WW II in the Pacific Theater, and also in the Korean War. He worked several jobs after the war, including at Chrysler Corporation and Deaconess Hospital. He retired in 1985 after 20 years at Sears, where he was a TV and appliance repair technician.

Jack was a life member of the Boonville VFW Post 3418 and a longtime member of Townsend Church in Paradise, Ind.

He loved talking to people — anyone and everyone. He never met a stranger. Also, he dearly loved his grandchildren.

Jack is survived by two sons, Thomas and wife Linda and Robert and wife Sylvia, and grandchildren, Marc and Brandie Gray, all of Boonville, Ind.; four stepgrandchildren, Elwood, Karla, Cord and William Rogers; a brother, Russell N. Gray and his wife, Greta, of Evansville, Ind.; a brother-in-law, Terry Entner of Crete, Ill.; and nieces and nephews.

Jack was preceded in death by his wife of 52 years, Laura May (Entner) Gray; a son, Charles R.; and grandchildren, Joshua and Melissa.

Funeral services 10 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 23 at Koehler Funeral Home Boonville Chapel, with Rev. William L. Carlisle and Pastor Mike Ward officiating. Burial in Greenwood Cemetery in Chandler, Ind., with military rites by the Warrick County Veterans Memorial Services.

Friends may call today, Wednesday, Dec. 22 from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m., and Thursday from 9 a.m. until service time at Koehler Funeral Home Boonville Chapel.

Memorial contributions in memory of Charles may be made to the Bread of Life Ministries.

Condolences and any special remembrance may be made online at www.koehlerfuneral-home.com

Mike & Judy's Neighbor

Dr. J. Guy Hoover

Dr. J. Guy Hoover, 89, died peacefully at Heritage Center, Evansville, on Sunday, June 8, 2008.

"Guy," as he was known to all, was born on Feb. 14, 1919, delivered by his grandfather, Dr. P.N. Hoover, at home in Boonville, Ind. As a boy, Guy often accompanied his father, Dr. J. Guy Hoover Sr., and his grandfather on their rounds on house calls all over Warrick County. Thus was born his desire to be a doctor.

A 1936 graduate of Boonville High School, he lettered in football, wrestling, boxing and basketball. His choice of No. 13 for his athletic jerseys was indicative of his independent spirit. He learned to love the outdoors. Hunting, swimming, waterskiing and, most of all, fishing became his passions. His sons saw to it that he fished up to the final months of his life.

Indiana University was his college choice. Despite losing his father at age 19, Guy worked and finished undergraduate and medical schools in an accelerated program in 1942. During World War II, he was a captain in the Army Medical Corps. He was shipped to France and Germany during the fiercest fighting, including the Battle of the Bulge. He was awarded the Purple Heart and the Bronze Star for valor.

After the war, he joined brother Bowen in his Boonville medical practice. He saved enough money to move his young family to Minneapolis, where he undertook a four-year surgical residency at the University of Minnesota. Guy, Kay and four sons returned to Indiana in 1955, where he started his practice as a board-certified surgeon in Evansville and was the first surgeon to perform arterial replacement with bypass prosthesis. He and Dr. J.D. McDonald soon joined forces and founded the group that is now known as Evansville Surgical Associates. One of his greatest joys was working with his son, Dr. Mike, for 15 years.

Dr. Hoover was elected to the Boonville Town Council in his early years. He was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, American Medical Association, Indiana State Medical Association, Vanderburgh County Medical Society, Diplomat American College of Surgeons, the Moorings Country Club of Naples, Fla., and the Naples United Church of Christ. He formerly belonged to Evansville Country Club and the Kennel Club.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Dr. J. Guy Hoover Sr. and Ada Bowen Hoover; his first wife, Clarice; his oldest son, J. Guy Hoover Jr.; his loving wife of 47 years, Kay; his two brothers, Bowen and John; and two sisters, Ann and Jane.

Surviving are his wife, Ruth of Naples, Fla.; sons, Alan and Diane Hoover of Indianapolis, Michael and Maria Hoover, M.D., of Evansville, John David and Martha Hoover of Indianapolis; sister, Emily Hoover Hanes of Mishawaka, Ind.; grandchildren, Jay Alan Hoover, John Michael Hoover, Melissa Kathryn Hoover Williams and husband Brandon, Michael David Hoover, Sarah Hoover, Rachael Hoover, and David Hoover and Sam Garau; nieces, Jane Ann Hanes of Mishawaka, and Jamie Lovell of Carmel, Ind.; nephew, Guy Hanes of Atlanta, Ga.; great-grandchildren, Kyle Heath and Jake Bowen Williams; stepchildren, Robert H. Clark of Rockford, Ill., and Janet Clark Holmgren and David of Rockford, Ill.; and stepgrandchildren, Peter and Eric Holmgren and Bobby, Lindsey and Tom Clark.

Private family funeral services for Dr. Hoover will be held on Thursday, June 12, 2008. A celebration of life reception for his many friends will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Thursday at Ziemer Funeral Home East Chapel, 800 S. Hebron Ave.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Warrick County Museum, 217 First St., Boonville, Ind.; Deaconess Foundation, 600 Mary St.; St. Mary's Hospital Foundation, 3700 Washington Ave., or the Naples United Church of Christ, 5200 Crayton Road, Naples, FL 34103.

His family thanks the many men and women of medicine, friends and caregivers who eased his final days. He fought the good fight and was gallant to the end.

Condolences may be made to the family online at www.ziemerfuneralhome.com.

during WWII, then served on the Oshkosh City Fire Department for 12 years before going into the ministry. He graduated from Wisconsin State University in Oshkosh, attended Mission House Seminary and received a Master of Divinity degree from Eden Theological Seminary in St. Louis, Mo. He was ordained on June 21, 1964, at his home church of Emmanuel U.C.C. in Oshkosh. Having served churches in St. Louis, Mo., St. Stephen U.C.C., Evansville, Zoar U.C.C., Indianapolis, Friedens U.C.C., Louisville, St. Stephen U.C.C., he retired in August 1991. He received the honor of Pastor Emeritus on April 20, 1997.

Rev. Marheine was involved in Scouting, attaining the rank of Eagle Scout, and served as Cubmaster and Scoutmaster.

Love of his first occupation led to serving the German Township Volunteer Fire Department, Evansville, Perry Township Volunteer Fire Department, Indianapolis and chaplaincy at Dixie Suburban Volunteer Fire Department, Louisville.

He served on the board of directors for the former Evangelical Methodist Hospital, Jefferson County Fire Trustees Association, Board of Directors and Property Committee at Brooklawn Child & Family Services and was president of the Indiana-Kentucky Conference United Church of Christ Board of Directors.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Elaine H. Marheine, of Louisville; four children, Lynn Kron (Alvin) of Lexington, Ky., Bruce Marheine (Diane) of Sullivan, Ind., Janet Hettenbach (Dale) of Evansville and Karen Lea (James) of Knob Noster, Mo.; 15 grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren. Survivors also include two brothers, Don Marheine (Suzann) of Escondido, Calif., and Rev. Allen Marheine (Carol) of Troy, Ohio; sister, Joan Gorchels (Ron) of Oshkosh, Wis.; and a host of nieces and nephews.

There will be visitation Wednesday 2 to 8 p.m. at Owen Funeral Home, 5317 Dixie Highway, Louisville, Ky., (502) 447-2600, and Thursday 1 to 3 p.m. at St. Stephen United Church of Christ, 1875 Farnsley Road, Louisville, with a service to follow at 3:30 p.m. Interment service will be held at noon CST at Zoar United Church of Christ, 4600 Church Road, Evansville.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Zoar United Church of Christ, 4600 Church Road, Evansville, IN 47720, or Brooklawn Child & Family Services, 2125 Goldsmith Lane, Louisville, KY 40218.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.*
