Opal B. (Barton)

Phillips

B O O N -
VILLE —

Opal B. (Barton) Phillips, 98, died Friday, February 21, 2003, at Southwind Healthcare in Boonville, Ind.

Opal Barton Phillips was born in Boonville on November 15, 1904, daughter of Caleb Albert and Virginia Jane (Howard) Barton. Two brothers, James and Howard Barton, preceded her in death.

Opal was a dedicated member of the Main Street General Baptist Church in Boonville, and has been since 1921. She taught the Teachers Training Class and in all departments of the Sunday school. She was a member of the Board of Religious Education.

After graduating from Boonville High School in 1922, Opal earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Evansville College. She has been an educator in Warrick County, beginning in 1924 until her retirement in 1971. Opal married J. Oscar Phillips on June 27, 1936. He preceded her in death on October 28, 1970.

Mrs. J. Oscar Phillips belongs to the Order of Eastern Star Chapter 450. She was a charter member of the Captain Jacob Warrick Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and a member of the State of Indiana Lineage Research Committee of D.A.R. Her memberships in professional organizations include the National Education Association, Warrick County Classroom Teachers, and Indiana State Teachers Association.

Opal was an educator in many ways. She was a teacher, researcher and writer. She was a woman who traveled, studied and learned new things. Opal traveled to the Holy Lands, which was important because of her religious beliefs. She also visited Switzerland and enjoyed the Alps. Mrs. J. Oscar Phillips became interested in genealogy and the study of family lineage and started writing in the 1950s.

During the 1960s, Opal and her husband, J. Oscar, recorded all the names of people buried in Warrick County cemeteries. After the cemeteries, they compiled a list of marriages. Opal completed the Phillips Family Genealogy, a book that contains more than 5,000 names of descendants. She wrote a three-volume documentary of Warrick County's Revolutionary War soldiers, entitled, "They Came to Warrick County," completed in 1976. She believes there are at least 21 American Revolutionary War soldiers buried in Warrick County. The volumes she wrote has won her first prize at the state D.A.R. competition, and when they were sent to the national D.A.R. competition in Washington, D.C., she received top honors.

Opal was the Warrick County historian for several years. She enjoyed collecting stamps and post cards. Opal also loved to attend the social functions at the Warrick County Senior Citizens Center.

Opal was a very outgoing and spiritual woman. She has lived a very exciting life. She has taught others what she has learned, was a valued woman in the community and played an important role to those interested in Warrick County history.

Opal is survived by her sister, Ruth Barton of Citrus, California; one niece, Dorothy Blackman; two nephews, William Frederick Barton and John D. Barton; and her caregivers, Argle and Dorothy Marshall of Boonville, Ind.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, February 25, at the Koehler Funeral Home Boonville Chapel, with Rev. Dwight Bland officiating. Burial will be in Maple Grove Cemetery in Boonville.

Visitation will be from 3 to 7 p.m. on Monday, February 24, and from 9 a.m. until funeral time Tuesday at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Main Street General Baptist Church in Boonville.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters: He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. . . Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. . . Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. . .

Earl Thomas Stone

Boonville, Ind.

Earl Thomas Stone, 95, devoted family man, husband, father, son and brother passed from this life on June 21, 2011, at the Newburgh Health Care Center.

Earl served in the United States Navy before World War II and again at the end of the war on the U.S.S. New York. He also helped build the Evansville shipyard as an electrician. He and his brothers owned Stone's Appliance and Furniture Store in Boonville, Ind. After closing the store he worked as a salesman. The last 20 years of his career was with Hendrickson and Son's Auto Sales. In his earlier years, Earl was an active member of St. Clement's Church, St. Vincent de Paul, Elks and the volunteer fire department. He enjoyed family and friends, golf, tennis, bridge, poker and ballroom dancing. He will be long remembered for his unfailing cheerfulness, kindness and generosity.

He will be lovingly remembered by his six children and their partners, Patricia Scott of Tucson Ariz., Marcia and Tom Ballard of Newburgh Ind., Thomas Stone and Raju Commandeur of India, Robert and Marla Stone of Boonville Ind., Margee Stone of Newburgh Ind., and Michelle Stone and Glenn Simonelli of Potsdam, N.Y. They are joined in fond remembrances by eight grandchildren and their partners, Bert Scott and Eliana Morris of Tucson Ariz., Brent and Cathy Elliott of North Plains, Ore., Ryan Elliott of Ojai, Calif., Crystal Stone and Chris Ivancevic of Encino Calif., Adrienne and Derek Stewart of Chandler, Ariz., Isaac Simonelli and Jackie Deumler of Bloomington, Ind., Julius Simonelli of Washington, D.C., and Corina Simonelli of Albany N.Y.; and four great-grandchildren, Zoe, Ani and Joshua Elliott and Julianne Scott.

He is preceded in death by his wife of 64 years, Margaret Vaugier Stone; his parents, Tom Stone and Mary Laine Stone; his brothers, Paul, Otis and Ralph Stone; and his granddaughter, Rosetta Stone.

Earl was very grateful for all the care he received during his last years by family and the loving staff of the Newburgh Health Care Center.

Services for Earl will be held at 6 p.m. Friday, June 24, 2011, at the St. Mary's Catholic Church, 613 Cherry Street, Evansville IN. The family will be receiving friends from 5 p.m. to service time, Friday, at the church. There will be no visitation at Bradley's Colonial Chapel in Boonville, Ind. Friends, if they wish, may make memorial contributions in memory of Earl to the Habitat of Evansville. ## Edward F. Titzer

Edward "Ed" Titzer, 73, of Evansville, died November 24, 2002, at his home after an extended battle with cancer.

Ed was a native of Evansville and one of five siblings. He graduated from Memorial High School and later completed courses in damage appraisal. He was a Certified Appraiser with Allstate Insurance Company for 22 years prior to 1976, when he and his wife, Georgia, founded and operated their appraisal business, Property Damage Appraisers. He retired in 1991.

In his 37 years as an appraiser, he assisted many, many families in resolving problems caused by storms, floods, fires and accidents. Ed investigated literally thousands of vehicle collision claims. His investigation of storm damages included the devastating Class F4 tornado that hit Petersburg, Indiana, in June of 1990. Not only helping to the contractual requirements of his position, many times he assisted families in other ways, following through in his Christian convictions to do unto others as he would have others do unto him.

His love of the Lord was evident not only in his work but in the volunteer efforts for his church family at Bethel Temple Community Church. He donated many hours in clearing the church parking lots after snow storms, built ramps for others who needed better access to their homes, assisted in construction work at The Evansville Christian Life Center and in many, many other ways over the course of his life.

He was a 30-year member Bethel Temple, a member of the church's Bible Fellowship Hour and the Saints Alive adult choir, that visited various nursing homes monthly. He loved to read his Bible on a regular basis and look for the answers to life within its pages.

In addition to his wife of 32 years, Georgia (McCord) Titzer, he is survived by one daughter, Sabra Henzman of Evansville; two stepdaughters, Nancy Searle of Tacoma Wash., and Becky Barnett of Evansville; one son, Leonard Titzer of Brooklyn, N.Y., and three stepsons, Michael, Jeff and Greg Snyder, all of Evansville; three sisters, Dorothy Thompson of Fairport, N.Y., Betti Niedermeier of Gig Harbor, Wash., and Suzanne La Cour of Beaver Dam, Ky.; and a brother Daniel Titzer of Evansville. Included in his survivors are eleven grandchildren, Derek Snyder, Jasmine Hutchcraft, Jeremy Snyder, Casey Snyder, Crystal Snyder, Kesha White, Shelly Snyder, Stephanie Bohnett, Laura Henzman, Marshall Titzer and Austin Titzer. Five great grandchildren also survive.

He was preceded in death by his stepson, Jimmy Snyder, in 1999 and his son, Gary Titzer, in 2002.

A Celebration of Life, funeral and memorial service will be held at Ziemer Funeral Home East Chapel, Wednesday, November 27, at 10 a.m., with Rev. David Schwambach officiating, entombment will be in Memorial Park Mausoleum in Evansville.

Harry Frederick Treber

Harry Frederick Treber, 79, of Greentown, Ind., went to be with the Lord Sunday, May 30, 2004, after a courageous eight-month battle with cancer. He was born April 14, 1925, in Marion, Indiana. His parents, Leslie F. Treber and Grace (Bildersback) Treber, preceded him in death. He is survived by his sister, Mary Ellen Fuller of Newburgh, Ind., and by his wife of 53 years, Myrtle (Douglass) Treber.

He began working as a teenager with the Marion Leader-Tribune. Later, he wrote for the Indianapolis Times. He served as a Navy medic in World War II and the Korean War. His service included surviving the sinking of his ship, the USS Benevolence in 1950.

He graduated from Marion High School in 1943. He received his Bachelor of Arts from Evansville College and then attended Indiana University, where he received a Master of Arts in Teaching degree.

Most of his professional career was spent as a teacher and administrator in Grant and Howard County schools. He began his career at Jefferson Township High School in Upland before moving to Mississinewa and Eastern High Schools.

For the last 17 years of his career, he was with the Kokomo-Center Schools, where, most notably, he taught Spanish at Hawthorn High School. He also taught Spanish classes for 20 years at Indiana University-Kokomo.

After retirement, he was a frequent substitute teacher, most notably at Taylor High School.

He studied and traveled extensively in Spanish-speaking areas, including Spain, Venezuela, Puerto Rico and Mexico, where he led numerous student tour groups. He served as president of Howard County Retired Teachers Association, chairman of the Indiana Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese, on the board of trustees at Earlham College and as resident director of Casa de los Amigos, a Quaker conference center in Mexico City.

He was a longtime member of Amboy Friends Meeting and served in many capacities, including interim pastor.

Survivors also include six children, Jenny Shepherd and husband Garry of Oak Ridge, N.C., Thomas Treber and wife Eglee of Decatur, Ga., Charles Treber and wife Susie of Saline, Mich., David Treber and wife Karen of Frostburg, Md., Daniel Treber and wife Susan of Upland, Ind., and Carmen Stark and husband Gary of Indianapolis; and 15 grandchildren, Christopher, Aaron and Gregory Shepherd, Tabitha, Hannah, Madeline, Holly and Aliza Treber, John and Samuel Treber, Amy, Jack and Quinn Treber and Rebecca and Griffin Stark.

Funeral services will be Wednesday, June 2, 2004, at 11 a.m. at the Amboy Friends Church, 110 E. Pennsylvania Ave., Amboy, Ind., with Pastor Richard Martens officiating.

Visitation will be from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at the church.

Memorial donations may be made to the Amboy Friends Church or the Friends Committee on National Legislation.

Arrangements are entrusted to the Laird Funeral Home in Amboy, Ind.

I am standing on the seashore. A ship spreads her sails to the morning breeze, and starts for the ocean.

I stand watching her until she fades on the horizon, and someone at my side says,
"She is gone!" "Gone where?" The loss of sight is in me, not in her.

Just at the moment when someone says, "She is gone," there are others who are watching her coming. Other voices take up the glad shout, with "Here she comes!"

"And that is dying"

Oscar Henry Welde

Oscar Henry Welde

CHANDLER — Oscar Henry Welde, 86, died Friday, April 25, 2003, at Deaconess Hospital in Evansville, Ind.

6

Oscar was born in Cressona, Pennsylvania, on October 13, 1916, to Ernest and Christine Welde, who were German immigrants.

Oscar graduated from Schuylkill Haven (Pennsylvania) High School and entered the U.S. Navy, attaining the rank of chief warrant officer.

Many local school children will remember him as the veteran who spoke to them about the bombing at Pearl Harbor. Mr. Welde witnessed the first bomb dropped at Pearl Harbor and served the remainder of World War II on submarines. Altogether, he served 23 years in the Navy.

Oscar was a member of the Main Street General Baptist Church, where he was a deacon, and was a member of the Gideons International. Oscar was a member of the Submarine Vets of World War II, Pearl Harbor Survivors Association, Pearl Harbor History Association, Pearl Harbor Commemorative Committee, Fleet Reserve Association and Retired Officers Association. He was a member of Master Gardner through Purdue University and the County Extension Office. Oscar was a member of the Sharkhunters International. He was a member of the Newburgh Masonic Lodge 174, Scottish Rite, the American Society of Dowsers and was a former member of the Chandler Kiwanis for 30 years.

He and his late wife operated Welde Florist and Greenhouses in Chandler for 15 years. He worked 10 years in grounds maintenance for Deaconess Hospital. He was married to the late Nedra Alexander for 52 years. Oscar was preceded in death by his wife, parents, three brothers and three sisters.

Oscar is survived by a special friend, Kathleen Anderson; two daughters, Susan Gahagan of Savannah, Ga., and Sherry Schafer of Boonville, Ind.; four grandchildren, Jeff Weber of Salem, Mass., Phillis Wyatt of Boonville, Ind., Stephane Tjosvold of Osseo, Minn., and Carlos Schafer of Chandler, Ind.; seven great-grandchildren, Christian Tjosvold, William Broshears, Brendon Broshears, Chelsea Wyatt, Ashton Tjosvold, Austin Weber and Jacob Price; and a sister, Anne Swartz of Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Main Street General Baptist Church in Boonville, Ind., with the Rev. Dwight Bland and the Rev. Kevin Morris officiating. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery in Chandler, Ind.

Friends may call from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m. today at the Koehler Funeral Home Perigo Chapel, 7022 Heim Road in Chandler, Ind., and from 8 a.m. until service time Tuesday at the Main Street General Baptist Church in Boonville, Ind.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar...

Mary Patricia Wilson

BOONVILLE —

Mary Patricia "Patty" Wilson, 72, passed away Friday evening, March 14, 2003, at Southwind Healthcare in Boonville.

Patty was a member of Main Street General Baptist Church. She was a minister in her own right. She loved Bible study and teaching young children about Jesus. Patty would pass out Bible and Scripture verses at many local businesses in Boonville.

She was born Oct. 16, 1930, and was given a very short life expectancy, but apparently God had other plans, as she taught his word and touched many people for more than 60 years.

Surviving are one sister, Barbara Wilson of Boonville; one brother, Jack S. Wilson of Franklin, Tenn.; and nieces and nephews.

Patty was preceded in death by her parents, Ray and Bessie Wilson; and a brother, Bill Wilson.

The Twenty Third Psalm

*THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES:
HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: HE LEADETH ME IN THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE..
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF
THE SHADOW OF DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVIL:
FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME. THOU PREPAREST A TABLE
BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL; MY CUP
RUNNETH OVER.. SURELY GOODNESS AND MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD FOR EVER.....*

Eunice Yoakum

BOONVILLE, Ind. — Eunice Yoakum, 95, died Thursday July 17, 2008, in Savannah, Tenn.

Eunice and Nathan attended the Main Street Baptist Church all through their 31 years of marriage.

She worked some as a beautician in their home and most importantly loved to work with children and ladies teaching music. She was a director as well as pianist. She taught Bible school for many years. Her church was very dear to her. She was a great role model, always ready to help any and all who wanted to sing for the Lord.

After Nathan retired she and Nathan would go to Florida, for the winter. Nathan could enjoy winters there better, they had some great times together.

After Nathan died in 1986 she became ill and moved to Chattanooga so that her son, Forrest, could see after her needs. While there she got together a ladies chorus at the retirement home she was living at. She stayed in Chattanooga until her health started to fail in 2004, she came to Savannah, Tenn., to live with her daughter, Carolyn and her husband, J.C. She had many good times with them going places on the lake and having people visit her. She even helped Carolyn put labels on bags to help her with her job she was doing at the time. For quite sometime she still played her organ and went through her music. She loved to listen to the Gaither's and watch Cowboy movies. Thank goodness for the Western Channel.

Eunice was preceded in death by her parents, Truman and Anna Hartman Packer, a brother, Howard, a sister, Helen, a son, Forrest R. Bugher Jr., infant daughter, Christina Bugher, and stepdaughters, Norma Jean Goad and Ann Shoulders.

Eunice is survived by a daughter, Carolyn A. Goodman and her husband, James, of Savannah, Tenn., and his daughter, Shella, and grandson, Christopher of Memphis, Tenn.; Forrest's wife, Anita, and her children, Donetta (Phil) Satterfield of Signal Mountain, Tenn., Larry (Inge) McCallister of Miami, Fla., and Scott McCallister of Signal Mountain, Tenn.; grandchildren, Mark Reel and wife, Kathy, her daughter, Alyce Lockwood, and son, Christopher Lockwood, Sharl Littlejohn and husband, Barry, of Cadiz, Ky.; great-grandchildren, Mark Kendall Reel, Paige Reel and Rachel Littlejohn.

Funeral Service 2 p.m. Sunday, July 20, 2008, at Koehler Funeral Home Boonville Chapel, with Rev. John Swain officiating. Burial in Maple Grove Cemetery in Boonville, Ind.

Friends may call from 3 to 8 p.m. Saturday and from noon to service time Sunday at Koehler Funeral Home Boonville Chapel.

Condolences and any special remembrance may be made online at www.koehlerfuneralhome.com.

God hath not promised
skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
all our lives through;
God hath not promised
sun without rain.
Joy without sorrow,
peace without pain.

But God hath promised
strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
help from above,
Unfailing sympathy —
undying love.
